Michael Craig on a building inspection.

Building a better Highlands

Michael Craig has been in the Highlands since the beginning of the year.

He grew up in New Zealand and has returned to the land after living in the city.

A builder with many year experience Michael has decided to offer locals the benefits of his expertise in the building industry.

He will be conducting building and pre purchase inspections with a minimum of fuss.

Michael will be able to offer practical advise on feasibility of requirements as he has been a builder for 20 years on the lower north shore of Sydney.

He offers advise over building disputes and is establishing a new web page for his family business.

Wife Sue takes care of all the office work and accounts.

Michael has been busy the last few weeks making himself known to agents and solicitors in the Highlands.

Same day service is assured with a response with in 24 hours. Michael is a member of MBA and offers efficient , reliable service focusing on inspections and consultations.

Over the 25 years Michael has had much experience in the building industry with not only domestic housing but also office fit outs.

As a sideline he also hopes to be able to concentrate on his unique steel and wood furniture.

He will be combining steel and timber textures for a unique product with the chairs and barstools always proving to be a popular item.
